

7-NIGHT HIGH WATER ITINERARY

November to May | Friday – Friday

Day 1 Friday Iquitos – Nauta – Embarkation – Marañon River

Arriving on a noon flight, receive a warm welcome at Iquitos International Airport by our crew. Board our private transfer to downtown Iquitos, for a panoramic city tour and a welcome lunch. Then transfer to Nauta port for embarkation.

Settle into your generously sized suite as you begin one of life's greatest adventures. Following an introduction to our naturalist guides and a routine safety drill, gather at the restaurant for the first of many Amazonian cuisine experiences created by Aria Amazon's renowned consulting chef, Pedro Miguel Schiaffino.

Day 2 Saturday Amazonas River – Yacapana Islands – Nauta Caño River

We start the day with early morning birdwatching along the majestic Amazon River. After breakfast, head out for a skiff excursion along the Yanayacu Yacapana River, a tributary of the Amazon River, in search of wildlife including parrots, hawks, monkeys, and sloths. In the evening, embark on a wildlife excursion on the black waters of Nauta Caño River. End the night with extraordinary stargazing.

Day 3 Sunday Yanayacu Pucate River – Marañon River – Village visit – Jungle walks

Begin the day's adventures near the main entrance of Pacaya Samiria National Reserve, cruising along Yanayacu Pucate in the comfort of our private skiffs. Here, fish for Amazonia's notoriously ferocious piranhas while we keep an eye out for other exotic wildlife. Visit an Amazon village to interact with native riberenos (people of the river) and witness a demonstration of Aguaje palm harvesting.

Canoe and swim in the area's enchanting black waters, while staying on the lookout for the legendary pink dolphins. After lunch, take a jungle walk in Casual's Forest and look for flora and fauna including medicinal trees, insects, and poison dart frogs.

Day 4 Monday Nauta Town – Village Visit – Birthplace of the Amazon

This morning, visit the local fresh market with your guides who can identify the day's catch by the Amazonian fishermen as well as the region's exotic fruits. After breakfast, take a short boat ride along Marañon River where you will have the opportunity to visit a group of Amazonian artisans and learn the art of weaving palm fibers, as traditionally done in the Peruvian Amazon.

In the afternoon, visit a beekeeper in the community on San Francisco before heading out on skiffs to witness one of the great spectacles of the Southern Hemisphere, the birthplace of the Amazon River. At night, meet the new passengers who have signed on for the four-night trip, as we start our journey along the Marañon River.

Day 5 Tuesday Ucayali River – Yanallpa Creek - Dorado Lake

If you wish, get an early start and head out for a wildlife search along the Ucayali River. Later, head out on skiffs in search of pink river dolphins and witness the local farmers and fishermen go about their business. At dusk, ride along the black waters of El Dorado River, searching for the mysterious wildlife that comes out after dark.
